212 RANTZAU, HEINR. VON. — REUSNER, NIC. Anagrammata de nomine . . . Henr. Ranzovii. — Strassburg, Ant. Bertram, 1588. 8vo. 8 ff. With printer's mark on title. Boards. £10.

FIRST EDITION of an unrecorded work of Nic. Reusner (1545-1602), professor of law at Strassburg and Jena. councellor to the Saxon Court, renowned for his elegant and accurate Latin and Greek epigrams. This curious booklet contains a series of anagrams on the name of Heinrich von Rantzau, the famous Prefect of Schleswig Holstein, whose court was a centre of learning and culture and who was himself the author of numerous historical and astrological works. Fol. 7 contains a geneology of the Rantzau family, which included the famous generals John (Henry's father) and Daniel Rantzau.

Si numeres, citiùs numerabis lumina cœli.
Vnus erat Latiâ Fabius vir maximus vrbe,
Qui meritas laudes, ortumq́; æquabat Olympo.
